

Cancer support service

Personalized, empathetic support to help you navigate a cancer diagnosis.

With cancer cases in the United States continuing to rise and remaining a leading cause of long-term disability, employees may be looking for improved benefits that can support them to a better quality of life. That’s why Guardian partnered with Osara Health to bring our members facing a cancer diagnosis the support services that can help you focus on your holistic well-being throughout your treatment. Because you have Guardian Long-Term Disability Insurance as a benefit through your employer, you have access to this unique 6 to 12 week program.

A comprehensive solution to help cancer patients navigate their diagnosis

Dedicated health coach

One-on-one coaching for holistic support, education and guidance with scheduled calls over 6-12 weeks that works around your schedule.

Digital resource modules

Weekly resources sent directly to you, covering the key areas of cancer self-management as developed by Osara Health’s clinical research team.

Tailored well-being information

Access to the Osara Health app to track symptoms and access tailored and verified well being content.

“My health coach understood exactly what I was going through and provided a wealth of resources on how to manage my stress, as well as other tips on food and exercise that I wouldn’t have otherwise.” - Osara Health Cancer Coach Program Participant

This service is only available if you have qualifying lines of coverage. See your plan administrator for more details.
