

COMMUTER BENEFITS PROGRAM

HOW A COMMUTER BENEFITS PROGRAM WORKS

Participant's use money in their TAG Commuter Benefits Account for all eligible work-related transit and parking expenses. Each paycheck, participant's elect to set aside a portion of pay, before taxes, to use for eligible transit and/or parking expenses.

Since the money used to fund the program isn't taxed, you save between 25% and 40% on every purchase. If, for example, you spend $200 a month on your commute, you can save nearly $1,000 per year with the program.

EXPENSES A COMMUTER PROGRAM CAN HELP PAY FOR

The great thing about a commuter program is that it covers just about every possible way you can travel to and from work. The simple rule is that if you take a form of public transit to work, park and ride, or park near work, you can save.

- Bus, light rail, regional rail, trolley, subway or ferry
- Vanpool, Lyft Share (not available in all cities)
- Parking at or near work
- Parking at or near public transportation for your commute

USING A COMMUTER PROGRAM IS EASY

When signing up for the program, you determine the amount of parking and/or transit expenses you would like deducted each pay period. As the amount is deducted from each paycheck, the money is put into your account and is available to use for eligible expenses. Accessing account funds is easy:

COMMUTER MASTERCARD. Use it instead of cash at eligible parking and transportation providers.

REIMBURSEMENT REQUEST. File a claim online, by fax or mail for reimbursement.

MOBILE APP. Use your smart phone to view your account information.
