Instructions for Filing a Proof of Death Claim Form

Upon the death of an insured employee, plan member or insured dependent, the employer/plan administrator must complete the claim form as indicated and send attachments mentioned below. Be advised that further documentation might be necessary in the future to complete the claim process.

Please submit the following documentation:

1. Proof of Death claim form:
  - Part I – Completed by the employer/plan administrator
  - Part II – Completed by the beneficiary(ies)
2. Original, photocopies or screen-print of enrollment form, including beneficiary changes.

4. For accidental death benefits, provide the following items, including but not limited to:
  - a. Official investigative report (police, accident, fire, FAA, OSHA)
  - b. Proof of seatbelt/airbag use, if applicable
  - c. Coroner's report or Medical Examiner's report findings and/or toxicology report

    2. Guardianship papers – The minor's custodian may obtain formal guardianship papers for the minor's estate. These legal guardianship documents must be obtained prior to the release of the benefit.
6. If the beneficiary has predeceased the insured and no contingent beneficiary is named or the insured did not name a beneficiary:
  - a. Payment of the life insurance benefits will be paid in order as specified in the policy provisions of the contract

Coping with Loss

Adjusting to losing a loved one

At times of grief and loss, it's not uncommon to be confused and uncertain about how to proceed.

We asked grief counselors, physicians and financial advisors what advice they would offer friends and clients during this difficult time. Some of their advice follows.

Grief & loss can affect your health

Be careful of your physical well-being, too. Your distress may manifest itself in sleeplessness and loss of appetite, adding to your emotional upset. The physical demands of added responsibilities may also take their toll. So, learn to ask for help and go easy on yourself.

Losing a loved one is one of life's most difficult trials

Each loss, like each relationship, is unique and each grief journey follows its own path and takes its own time. Strong emotions are natural and are a part of the healing process. Accepting those emotions and giving yourself permission to have them are important steps in the journey. Some mourners find solace in support groups or with professional counselors.

Finances

You may face major new financial responsibilities at this time. Not only must you put your own finances in order, but you may be called upon to make decisions regarding the estate of the deceased.

Do not give in to pressure to make snap decisions you might regret later. Protect yourself by consulting with the appropriate advisors, such as your accountant, attorney, insurance representative or financial planner.

Important Papers

If the deceased was your spouse, or you are executor of the estate, financial advisors suggest you search for important items and documents, including:

- Insurance policies
- Employee benefit plan documents
- Business agreements
- Wills/trusts
- Income tax returns and W-2 forms
- Marriage and birth certificates
